THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT Editor.

WEDNESDAY FEB. 27, 1907.

What a pity to "have to" leave congress just as the pay has been increased.

How can the jury be expected to agree when the lawyers are hopelessly divided?

The Evening Star, of Winchester, wants to know if the Democratic party is about to die? "It was'nt born to die."

What will the Governor of South Carolina say to the Governor of North Carolina now that the bottles have been corked?

Kentuckians are evidently degenerating. Six of them were recently involved in a shooting affray in which nobody was killed.

We are glad to know that the rural carriers will share in the increase of postal employees salaries. The maximum has been increased to $840 from $720.

Judge Duke, of Charlottesville, wants to be governor, as well Col. Ellyson, Judge Maun, Mr. Tucker, Mr. Glass, Gen. Ayers, and the truth is the 'woods is full of them.'

If the Capitol square is extended to Main street and beautified as is proposed it will be the most attractive public park in the Nation. Keep an eye on Richmond and watch her grow.

The Richmond bar room drinkers will no longer be permitted to dodge behind screens and must finish drinking by midnig ht. A 'good long' thirst ought to be satisfied by that time.

And now mother-Thaw is reported as saying, "Harry always was weak minded," and yet she allowed this foolish son money to land him in the "Tombs," and where next who can tell?

Senator Bailey is sailing on no stormy a sea as ever felt the weight of a politician's craft. If he weathers the storm he will reach the haven, he will be declared no storm-beaten as no longer to be reckoned as sea-worthy.

The idea that a military and naval display at the Jamestown Exposition will be regarded by the outside world as a "kick at Christianity" is too foolish to be considered and yet Rev. Dr. Parkhurst is the author of the nonsense.

While the able editor of the Charlottesville Progress is chaperoning the Roosevelt-Bryan combination Mr. Bryan will be touring New England in quest of votes we presume. "Things is changing" Lindrey for Roosevelt and Bryan hunting votes in New England.

The famine in China has assumed starting proportions as we are told that 10,000,000 human beings are exposed to death from starvation. As is our wont we have heard the distress call from across the seas and out of our abundance are sending the much needed help A little money goes a long ways in China and if you can give but little give that and give now.

When the sessamin's bull'et made Mr. Roosevelt President of the United States conservative citizens trembled for the future of the government. "War will result with a half chance" was heard on all sides and yet with a whole chance he has been a stontly "standing pat" for fear This is to his credit and let us hope that the good man will last to the end of his administration.

The Lynchburg News is of opinion that the Democrats of New York have just now a "splendid notoriety" and then adds, "unhappily the leaders of the Empire state cannot always be depended on to do the right thing at the right time." And isn't this true of the Virginia Democracy and that of the nation? Bryan would have been President if the Democratic vote could have been depended on."

In the near future the sight-seers and prospective land buyers who will take advantage of the excursion rates to the Jamestown Exposition will be invading Virginia, and it behooves all of us to get in best position to receive them. As far as possible use the white wash and paint brushes, clean up, and lets fill over unoccupied places with a thrifty and deserving population AM of us can contribute to such desirable results.

Where The Money Comes From

Most of the money comes from the users or consumers of farm products. Are you getting your share of all this money? Our new almanac lays down necessary rules for fertilizing, planting, cultivating, top dressing, harvesting and preparing for market your crops of cotton, tobacco, corn, vegetables, fruits and grains. If you desire big profits, use from 400 to 1000 pounds of high grade per acre on all your crops, and you will be agreeably surprised at your greatly increased yields. Ask your fertilizer dealer, or write us for a copy of Virginia-Carolina Fertilizer almanac, which is written by some of the most experienced and successful farmers in the South. While it is free to you, many farmers say the almanac is worth $5.00 to them for its suggestions.

A large flock of wild geese was observed here yesterday—on the wing. They were north-bound. The ground hog may be a prognosticator, but the wild geese, it is said never move north until the winter is settled.

Marriage Anniversary.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season was the celebration of the twenty-fifth marriage anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Bolling Jones at their hospitable home near Spring Mills. The guests were welcomed by their daughters, Misses Mary, Annie and Lillian Jones, and after many pleasant greetings the original bridal party was the first to grace the festive board. The dining room as well as the rest of the house was most appropriately decorated in white and silver. Mrs. Simpson and Miss Therese Franklin served a regular "Old Virginia" wedding feast. The color scheme was nicely carried out in the cakes and cream. The bride's cake was cut, causing much merriment. Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Jesse Wood entertained the guests with sweet music, most of it music popular twenty-five years ago. Numerous and handsome were the presents received attesting the popularity of the couple.

At a late hour the crowd left, all voting a most enjoyable evening and wishing the bride and groom many more years of happy union.

Hunter—Clement Marriage

At the home of the bride, "Oakdale," in Campbell county, Monday Miss Mattie Clement became the bride of Hon R. Palmer Hunter, brother of Rev. Joshua Hunter, of Richmond. The parlor had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and evergreens. Mrs. R. O. Burks played the wedding march, and softly played a beautiful selection, while the Rev. Asa Driscoll performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Major Adam Clement, and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends, and is well-known, both in this city and her native county. She was married in a blue broadcloth suit, and her going away gown was chiffon and taffeta.

The groom is one of the prominent citizens of the State, having served the county in the Virginia Legislature, and as superintendent of the schools and other positions of trust.

An elegant luncheon was served the wedding party, and in the afternoon the newly wedded pair went to their beautiful home, "Vineland" on Mollie's Creek, where they will be at home to their friends.—Lynchburg News.

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.

Farmers as a rule do not keep books of accounts. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions, involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank, is safer than using money: because the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.

Money deposited in a bank is not so easily or so often "Pooled away" as when carried a way in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books an we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.

The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.
